

ASSURED SHORTHOLD TENANCY AGREEMENT

for letting a residential dwelling

Important Notes for Tenants

- This tenancy agreement is a legal and binding contract and the Tenant is responsible for payment of the rent for the entire agreed term. The agreement may not be terminated early unless the agreement contains a break clause, or written permission is obtained from the Landlord.
- Where there is more than one tenant, all obligations, including those for rent and repairs can be enforced against all of the tenants jointly and against each individually. Where the tenancy is subject to deposit protection then joint tenants may have to nominate a lead tenant to act on their behalf with the Landlord or Tenancy Deposit Scheme provider or their alternative dispute resolution service provider.
- If you are unsure of your obligations under this agreement, then you are advised to take independent legal advice before signing.

General Notes

1. This tenancy agreement is for letting furnished or unfurnished residential accommodation on an assured shorthold tenancy within the provisions of the Housing Act 1988 as amended by Part III of the Housing Act 1996. As such, this is a legal document and should not be used without adequate knowledge of the law of landlord and tenant.
2. Prospective tenants should have an adequate opportunity to read and understand the tenancy agreement before signing in order for this agreement to be fully enforceable.
3. This agreement may be used for residential tenancies of three years or less. Agreements for tenancies of a longer duration should be drawn up by deed.
4. Section 11, Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 - these obligations require the Landlord to keep in repair the structure and exterior of the dwelling, and to keep in repair and proper working order the installations for the supply of water, gas and electricity and the installations in the Property for space heating and heating water.
5. Section 196 of the Law of Property Act 1925 provides that a notice shall be sufficiently served if sent by registered or recorded delivery post (if the letter is not returned undelivered) to the Tenant at the Property or the last known address of the Tenant or left addressed to the Tenant at the Property.
6. This agreement has been drawn up after consideration of the Office of Fair Trading's Guidance on Unfair Terms in Tenancy Agreements.
7. If you accept a tenancy deposit under this tenancy, it must be dealt with in accordance with the statutory rules under sections 212-215 of the Housing Act 2004. Take advice if necessary.

Tenant(s)

Property The dwelling known as

Contents The fixtures and fittings at the Property together with any furniture, carpets, curtains and other effects listed in the Inventory

Term

Rent

Payment

A deposit of £ is payable on signing this agreement.

The Landlord agrees to let and the Tenant agrees to take the Property and Contents for the Term at the Rent payable as above.

2. Deposit

(2.1) The Tenant pays the Deposit as security for the performance of the Tenant's obligations and to pay and compensate the Landlord for the reasonable costs of any breach of those obligations. It is specifically agreed that this money is not to be used by the Tenant as payment for any rent due under this agreement. No interest shall be payable on this Deposit. The balance of the Deposit to be paid to the Tenant as soon as reasonably possible after the conclusion of the tenancy, less any reasonable costs incurred for the breach of any obligation as agreed by the appropriate deposit scheme, details of which are contained in the scheme's deposit information leaflet and website.

(2.2) The deposit is not transferable in anyway.

(2.3) In the event that the total amount lawfully due at the end of the tenancy exceeds the amount of the deposit, the tenant shall reimburse the landlords agent the further amount within 14 days of the request being made.

(2.4) The deposit (subject to any deductions) will be returned to the "lead tenant". It will then be the responsibility of the lead tenant to divide the remaining deposit between the parties forming the tenancy.

The Tenant agrees with the Landlord:

3. Rent & charges

(3.1) To pay the Rent on the days and in the manner specified to the Landlord's Agent

(3.2) To pay promptly to the authorities to whom they are due, council tax, gas, electricity, water and telephone (if any) relating to the Property, where they are incurred during this agreement, including any which are imposed after the date of this Agreement (even if of a novel nature). The Tenant agrees not to change the supplier for any of the utility services with prior notification to the Landlord.

(3.3) That in the case of a breach of the terms of the tenancy by the Tenant, a reasonable administration charge may be made in addition to the costs of any remedial work, in order to compensate the Landlord or Agent his reasonable expenses.

(3.4) That an administration fee of £25 plus VAT will be charged for each time the Rent is overdue.

(3.5) A call out fee of £25 plus VAT will be applied to any 'out of hours' call outs where the tenant is at fault.

4. Use of the Property

- (4.1) Not to assign, or sublet, part with possession of the Property, or let any other person live at the Property except that during the fixed term of the tenancy the Tenant may assign or sublet with the Landlord's express consent which will not be unreasonably withheld. Such consent, as a variation of the tenancy agreement, to be agreed in writing
- (4.2) To use the Property as a single private dwelling and not to use it or any part of it for any other purpose nor to allow anyone else to do so
- (4.3) Not to receive paying guests or carry on or permit to be carried on any business, trade or profession on or from the Property
- (4.4) Not to do or permit or suffer to be done in or on the Property any act or thing which may be a nuisance damage, or annoyance to a person residing, visiting or otherwise engaged in lawful activity or the occupiers of the neighbouring premises
- (4.5) Not to keep any cats or dogs at the property and not to keep any other animals, reptiles or birds (or other living creatures that may cause damage to the Property, or annoyance to neighbours) on the Property without the Landlord's written consent. Such consent, if granted, to be revocable, on reasonable grounds by the Landlord
- (4.6) Not to use the Property for any illegal or immoral purposes
- (4.7) Where the Landlord's interest is derived from another lease ("the Headlease") then it is agreed that the Tenant will observe the restrictions in the Headlease applicable to the Property. A copy of the Headlease, if applicable, is attached
- (4.8) This Tenancy Agreement is subject to the completion of works (if any).

5. Repairs

- (5.1) Not to damage the Property and Contents or make any alteration or addition to the property without the written permission of the Landlord not to be unreasonably refused
- (5.2) To keep the interior of the Property and the Contents in at least as good and clean condition and repair as they were at the commencement of the tenancy, with fair wear and tear excepted, and to keep the Property reasonably aired and warmed
- (5.3) To pay the reasonable costs reasonably incurred by the Landlord or his Agent in replacing or repairing any furniture or other contents, lost, damaged or destroyed by the Tenant or, at the option of the Landlord, replace immediately any furniture or other contents, lost, damaged or destroyed by the Tenant, and not to remove or permit to be removed any furniture or other contents from the Property
- (5.4) That the Landlord or any person authorised by the Landlord or his Agent may at reasonable times of the day to enter the Property for the purpose of inspecting its condition and state of repair. The Tenant shall permit the Property to be viewed on reasonable notice (of at least 24 hours) at all reasonable times during the tenancy
- (5.5) To keep the gardens (if any) driveways, pathways, lawns, hedges and rockeries as neat, tidy and properly tended as they were at the start of the tenancy and not to remove any trees or plants
- (5.6) To replace all broken glass in doors and windows damaged during the tenancy where the damage has been caused by the Tenant, a member of the Tenant's family or their guests
- (5.7) Not to alter or change or install any locks on any doors or windows in or about the Property or have any additional keys made for any locks without the prior written consent of the Landlord, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, and the cost of providing a set of keys for the Landlord or his agent to be met by the Tenant
- (5.8) To notify the Landlord promptly in writing, including email of any disrepair, damage or defect in the Property or of any event which causes damage to the Property.
- (5.9) Not to affix any notice, sign, poster or other thing to the internal or external surfaces of the Property in such a way as to cause damage
- (5.10) To take all reasonable precautions to prevent damage by frost
- (5.11) In order to comply with the Gas Safety Regulations, it is necessary:
- (a) that the ventilators provided for this purpose in the Property should not be blocked
 - (b) that brown or sooty build-up on any gas appliance should be reported immediately to the Landlord or Agent
- (5.12) That the Tenant shall be responsible for any blocked drains, sinks, pipes, baths or showers and will pay the reasonable costs reasonably incurred by the Landlord or his Agent in replacing, repairing or unblocking these.
- (5.13) Not to cause damage to walls by applying blue tac or pins to the walls a cost of £50.00 per wall will be applied to any walls damaged by such things.
- (5.14) Not to introduce into the Property any portable heaters fired by liquid or bottled gas fuels without the Landlord's prior written consent
- (5.15) That the Tenant shall be responsible for testing all smoke detectors (if any) fitted in the Property on a regular basis and replace the batteries as necessary
- (5.16) That the Tenant is responsible for the repair and maintenance of the television aerials, satellite dish and similar signal reception devices (if any) in the Property. The Landlord shall not accept any responsibility for unsatisfactory radio or television reception.
- (5.17) To keep all electric lights in good working order and in particular to replace all fuses, bulbs, fluorescent tubes as and when necessary. Also any replaceable or disposable filters, vacuum bags etc. to be replaced, at the end of the tenancy.
- (5.18) To take all reasonable precautions to prevent condensation been caused within the property.
- (5.19) Not to dry wet clothes on internal radiators

6. Other tenant responsibilities

(6.1) Within seven days of receipt thereof, to send to the Landlord all correspondence addressed to the Landlord or the owner of the Property and any notice, order or proposal relating to the Property (or any building of which the Property forms part) given, made or issued under or by virtue of any statute, regulation, order, direction or bye-law by any competent authority

(6.2) To pay the Landlord fully for any reasonable costs or damage suffered by the Landlord as a consequence of any breach of the agreements on the part of the Tenant in this Agreement

(6.3) Anytime during the tenancy to permit the Landlord or any person authorised by the Landlord or the Landlord's Agent at reasonable hours in daytime to enter and view the Property with prospective tenants or purchasers, having first given the Tenant a reasonable period of notice

(6.4) That where the Property is left unoccupied, without prior notice in writing to the Landlord or Agent, for a prolonged period, the Tenant has failed to pay rent for that period, and has shown no intention to return, the Landlord may treat these actions as a surrender of the tenancy. This means that the Landlord may take over the Property and re-let it

(6.5) To properly secure all locks and bolts to the doors, windows and other openings when leaving the Property unattended and where the Property is left vacant for more than 28 consecutive days and the rent is paid, to notify the Landlord or his agent, and to allow him access to the property in order to secure it where necessary

(6.6) Not to smoke or allow any visitors to smoke any substance inside the property and in any communal areas belonging to the property. If smoking damages are caused, charges will apply.

(6.7) To approve the Inventory and advise the Landlord or Agent accordingly within seven days from the start date of this Agreement, or the Inventory is otherwise deemed to have been accepted as a true and accurate record of the Property and Contents.

(6.8) To clean all windows on a regular basis and at the expiration of the tenancy.

(6.9) That the Tenant will be liable for any reasonable charge or other cost incurred as a result of missed appointments or failing to notify the landlord when appointments are no longer required, where a prior arrangement has been made for tradesmen to visit, inspect or work at the Property.

(6.10) To take all reasonable and practical steps to keep the Property free from infestation by vermin. In the event of the Tenant's failure to do so the Tenant shall indemnify the Landlord for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred in taking the appropriate remedial steps and making good any damage.

(6.11) Not to have any naked flames inside the property, this included the use of candles.

7. End of tenancy

(7.1) To return the Property and Contents at the end of the tenancy in the same clean state or condition as they were at the commencement of the tenancy

(7.2) To leave the Contents at the end of the tenancy in approximately the same places in which they were positioned at the commencement of the tenancy

(7.3) To return the keys of the Property to the Agent on the agreed termination date, or the end of the tenancy (whichever is sooner). The Tenant also agrees to pay for any reasonable charges incurred by the Agent in securing the Property against re-entry where keys are not returned. The Tenant agrees that any keys returned after the agreed date will be subject to a charge equivalent to the daily rent for every day that they are late back.

(7.4) To remove all rubbish from the property, except one black sack's worth which may be left in the appropriate place for collection, before returning the property to the landlord/agent. Any additional rubbish will be charged at a rate of £50.00 per sack.

8. The Landlord agrees with the Tenant that:

(8.1) The Landlord shall permit the Tenant to have quiet enjoyment of the Property without interruption by the Landlord or his Agent, however this does not preclude the Landlord from taking action through the courts should the Tenant fail to pay the rent due or be in breach of the Tenancy Agreement

(8.2) The Landlord will return to the Tenant any rent payable for any period during which the Property may have been rendered uninhabitable by fire, flood or any other risk which the Landlord has insured, other than where the damage has been caused by the act or omission of the Tenant, his family or his visitors

(8.3) Subject to the condition that the Landlord must obtain a court order for possession of the Property before re-entering the premises; if the tenant does not:

- (a) pay the rent (or any part of it) within 14 days of the date on which it is due; or
- (b) comply with the obligations set out in the agreement, then the landlord may re-enter the Property and end the tenancy.

(8.4) The Landlord agrees to carry out any repairing obligations as required by section 11 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 (see general note 4)

9. In this Agreement, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions shall have the following meanings:

"The Landlord" includes the persons who during the period of the tenancy have a legal interest in the property

"The Tenant" includes those who might inherit the tenancy. Whenever there is more than one Tenant all covenants and obligations can be enforced against all of the Tenants jointly and against each individually. This means that any one of the members of a joint tenancy can be held responsible for the full rent and other obligations under the agreement if the other members do not fulfil their obligations

10. The parties agree:

(10.1) Notice is hereby given that possession might be recovered under Ground 1, Schedule 2 of the Housing Act 1988 if applicable. That is, that the Landlord used to live in the Property as his or her main home; or intends to occupy the Property as his or her only or main home

(10.2) The tenancy may be brought to an end if the mortgagee requires possession on default of the borrower under Ground 2, Schedule 2 of the Housing Act 1988

(10.3) Before the Landlord can end this tenancy, he shall serve any notice(s) on the Tenant in accordance with the provisions of the Housing Acts. Such notice(s) shall be sufficiently served if served at the last known address of the tenant in accordance with section 196 of the Law of Property Act 1925 (see general note 5)

11. (11.1) The Property is let together with the special conditions (if any) listed in the First Schedule attached hereto

(11.2) Unless otherwise agreed in writing by all parties, there will be no extra services provided by the Landlord.

(11.3) Any extra decoration of the Property or change to the Property furniture must be agreed on signing and will not be offered after this point.
